1. Budget: We were ahead on parking from initial budget, but behind after Music-a-thon.
 - a. Snap fundraiser
 - i. Snap concerns are that we've already asked for simple donations from family and friends.
 - ii. Snap overhead costs are high compared to other software options. (schoolauction.net, auctria.com)
 - iii. Who might take this on as it could require coordination with Friends of Lincoln and some of the other big fundraising groups? (e.g., Drama, ConTeam, etc.)
 - b. Instruments: Doug reported on this
 - i. Wally's: 20% + repairs
 - ii. Tigard Music: 25% + repairs
 - iii. E-flyer: Jessica will do; can also include a 10% off coupon if buy a Lincoln donated instrument
 - iv. Doug will assist with this
 - v. Will start with instruments being dropped off at Lincoln
 - c. Music-a-thon
 - i. Jessica has a bin with all of the photo booth items for next year
 - d. Levy's Moda Events
 - i. 10 people/shift, 8 must be adults, uniforms, long time commitments
 - ii. Works well for adult community groups and for very large groups
 - iii. Group decided this would not be a good idea
 - e. Happy Hour at Freeland Music Event
 - i. Tip jar
 - ii. Specialty drink would be dedicated to benefit music program

- iii. Better for spring when can do inside/outside event
 - f. Coffee
 - i. Kristin did the form
 - ii. Stephen will get the names of the coffee to add into form
 - iii. Form will go out this week with coffee to be distributed during winter concerts (December 17th and 18th)
